

2010 NMMW Summer Gathering
July 30 - August 1, 2010
In the Western Jemez Mountains, SE of Cuba, NM

The 2010 Summer Gathering will take place in the Western Jemez Mountains, SE of Cuba (old site, before Jack's Creek). We will explore and share our experiences on intuition & inspiration, and I'm sure many more things will be brought forth in the process. I know that we will be inspired by the beauty of the mountains and the green valleys of this beautiful place.

This will be a time to share of ourselves with other supportive men in an environment of understanding and acceptance. There will be morning meditations, talking circles, music and drumming, a joint meal and an event to lead us to intuition and inspiration. Besides all that we will have free time to do with as we choose.

Please join us...it won't be the same without you.
